

The Podcast server is an easy and effective way to put videos online. The power lies in the many ways you may share these videos with others.

You learned the easiest way to share your video(s) by using the URL created for your video:

Title:	Using Google as an HTML Edito
Actions:	Delete Update Protect Move Add to Playlist Link Code
File URL:	http://podcasting.gcsu.edu/4DCGI/Podcasting/WestGa/Episodes/6969/24291.pdf
Publish Date:	Jun 10, 2010
Downloads:	25
File Size:	1.21 MB

Embed your videos in CourseDen

But, the Podcast Server helps you to easily Embed your videos in CourseDen and anywhere accepting HTML code (i.e. Blog, Wiki, and other)

Embed Your Entire Podcast Channel in CourseDen

While you may choose to embed individual videos anywhere in CourseDen, you might wish to embed your entire Podcast Channel in CourseDen (and anywhere accepting HTML code (i.e. Blog, Wiki, and other).

When you embed your entire channel, you only need to upload/create your videos in the Podcast Server. These videos will automatically be available in CourseDen.

Yes, that's right automatically!
